THE SEARCH PROCESS:

NOMINATION AT THE SCHOOL LEVEL

- I. A dean, professor, president of a college/university or a student may endorse his nominee/s to the School Level Selection Committee (if existing) or to the Official Nominator (the Student Affairs Office Head or the President). The head of a college/university shall have the option to conduct a formal screening process or directly nominate the college/university's nominees for the search from among the names submitted by the dean, professor, and officer of a school organization or students of a college/university.
- II. College and universities are encouraged to create or initiate, as much as possible, their own Institutional Selection Committee in screening their nominees for the regional (and national) search for submission to the President of the school who shall then endorse the nominees to the TOSP Regional Executive Committees (REXECOM/Secretariats in their respective areas).

PRE-SCREENING AT THE REGIONAL LEVEL

- I. Nominations shall be received by the Regional Secretariat within the set due date. (see schedule of deadlines)
- II. The Regional Secretariat shall review if the documents are in accordance with the TOSP requirements. The review shall account whether a school has nominated students belonging to the same course, with failing grades, or who have dropped and/or withdrawn subjects during their college years. It shall also determine if there are missing or unverified documents. Should the Nomination package be considered not in order, it shall be sent back and brought to the attention of the nominating school until full compliance is achieved.
- III. After the Regional Secretariat's pre-screening, in the case of Regionalized areas, the nomination is forwarded to the Regional Screening Committee for the Regional Finalists' selection process; for non-regionalized areas, to the National Secretariat for the National Screening. See Annex B: list of Regionalized and Not Regionalized Areas.

SELECTION OF REGIONAL FINALISTS (for Regionalized Areas only)

- I. A Regional Screening Committee is convened for the sole purpose of selecting finalists for the Regional TOSP Search through nomination package (bidbook) review. No personal interviews by the committee shall be honored at this stage.
- II. The regional finalists through their respective schools shall be formally informed of the results by letter or telegram signed by the Regional Executive Committee Chair and Chair of the Regional Screening Committee.

REGIONAL FORMATION PROGRAM (for selected Regionalized Areas only)

- I. In selected regions, the regional finalists shall undergo a three (3) - day (maximum) Formation Program to be facilitated by the members of the TOSP Alumni Community.

SELECTION OF REGIONAL WINNERS (for Regionalized Areas only)

- I. A five (5) - member Board of Judges shall be convened by the Regional Executive Committee (REXECOM) to conduct the final selection process for the Regional Search. The finalists shall undergo a panel interview at this stage at a designated place agreed upon by the REXECOM.

TEN OUTSTANDING STUDENTS OF THE PHILIPPINES

- II. After all the finalists have been interviewed, the judges will record their final scores and deliberate en banc as to how many and who shall be awarded as TOSP Regional Winners. The Board of Judges may decide to award less than 1/3 of the total number of finalists if the members feel that only a fewer number deserve the award. The regional awardees shall not be ranked.
- III. A Ceremony shall be held to formally announce and bestow the Award to the Regional Search Winners and recognize the Regional Finalists.

SELECTION OF NATIONAL FINALISTS (NATIONAL SCREENING)

- I. For Regionalized Areas:
 - a. All regional awardees automatically qualify as candidates to the National Search Pool. All documents of the winners to the Regional Searches shall be forwarded to the National Secretariat within the set timeline.
- II. For Non-Regionalized Areas:
 - a. All pre-screened and CHED-endorsed nominations from schools belonging to non-regionalized areas shall qualify as candidates for national screening. All documents of nominees shall be forwarded to the National Secretariat within the set timeline.
- III. A National Screening Committee shall be convened by the National Executive Committee for the sole purpose of selecting the thirty (30) national finalists for through nomination package (bidbook) review. No personal interviews by the committee shall be honored at this stage.
- IV. The national finalists through their respective schools shall be formally informed of the results by letter or telegram signed by the National Executive Committee Chair.

NATIONAL FORMATION PROGRAM (for National Finalists only)

- I. All of the thirty (30) national finalists shall be invited to TOSP Search Head Office in Manila, Philippines, to participate in the National Week Activities consisting of a three (3) - day Formation Program, Outreach and Exposure Activities, to be facilitated by the members of the TOSP Alumni Community and the National Secretariat.

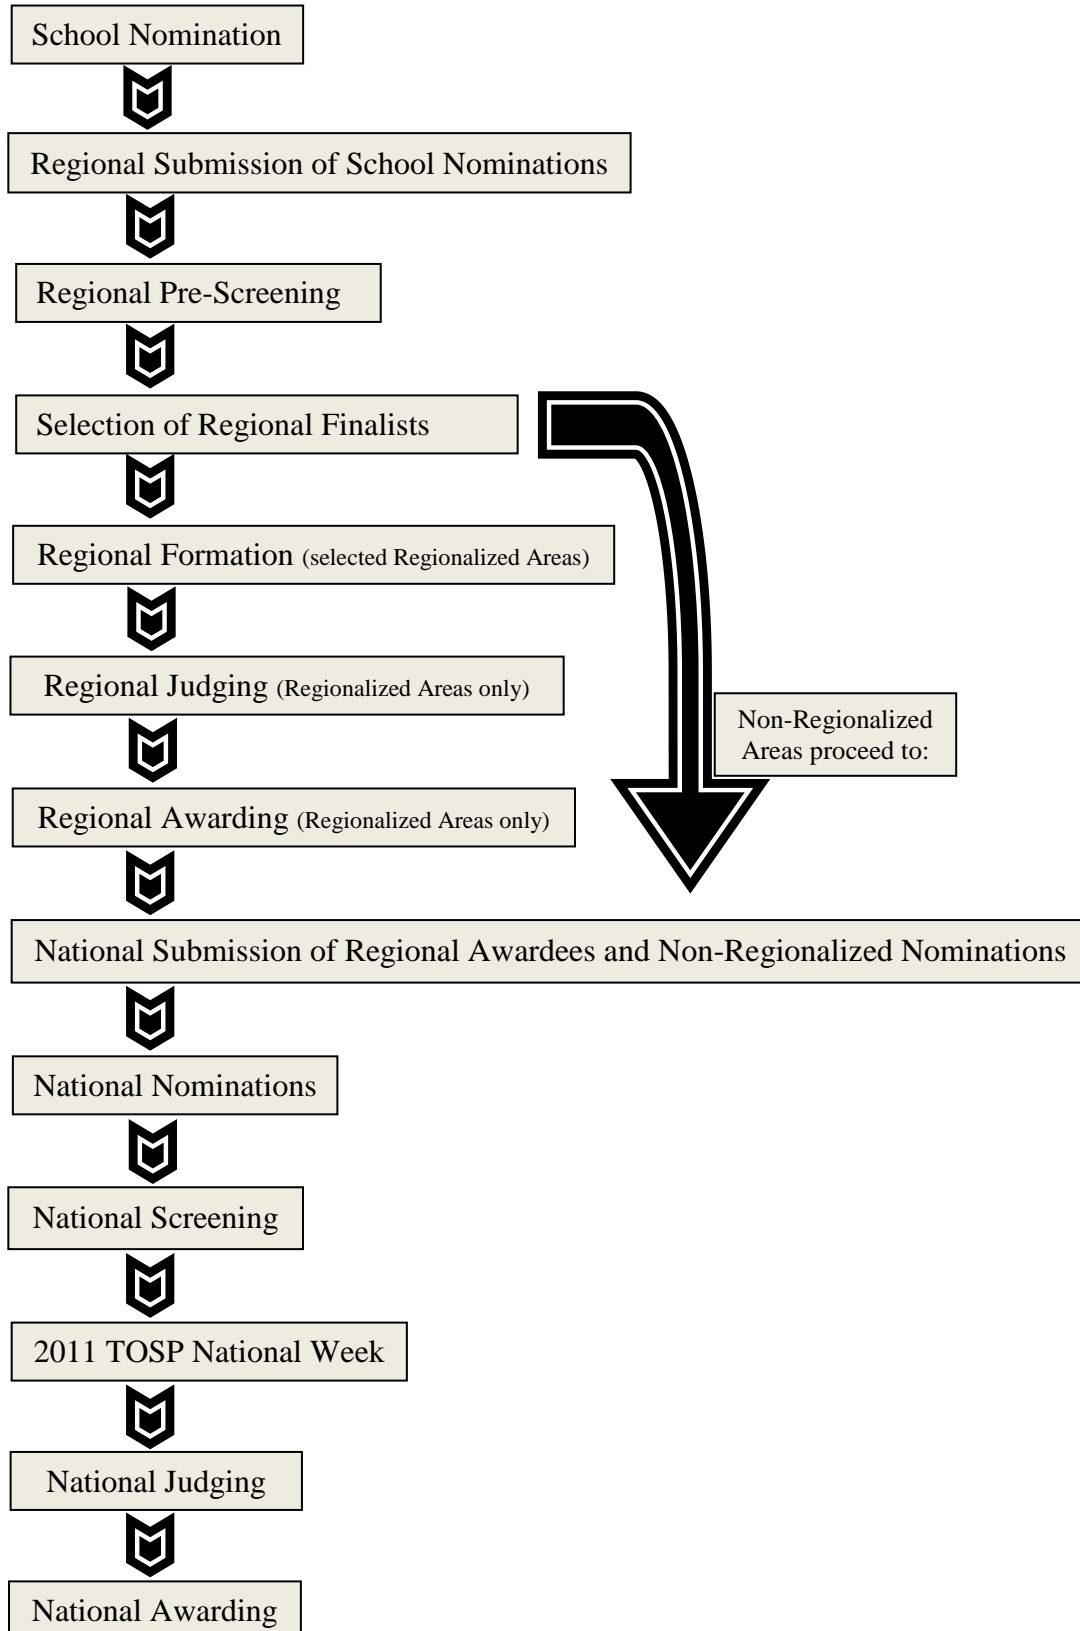

SELECTION OF NATIONAL AWARDEES

- I. A five (5) - member Board of Judges (minimum) shall be convened by the National Executive Committee (REXECOM) to conduct the final selection process for the National Search. The finalists, individually, shall undergo a panel interview at this stage during the National Week Activities.
- II. After all the finalists have been interviewed, the judges will record their final scores and deliberate en banc as to who shall be named Ten Outstanding Students of the Philippines. The awardees shall not be ranked.
- III. A Ceremony shall be held at the Malacanan Palace by the President of the Republic to Award the Winners and honor the other finalists.
